

Dear Chairman Powell and Commissioners,
Who owns the airwaves?

Local public affairs programming is virtually non-existent.

Most Americans don't know basic facts about any candidate issues.

Is this as designed?

The FCC should institute concrete public interest requirements of broadcasters that include a minimum of three hours per week of local civic and electoral affairs programming, with at least two hours devoted to substantive election coverage in the six weeks prior to Election Day.

So who does own the airwaves?

Do you care? I thought so.

Serve up the next meaningless TV Ad to put profits into the broadcasters pockets. That is a request that I know will be fulfilled. So finally, I can say thank you.

Sincerely and with tongue only halfway in cheek,

Peter H. Jespersen
